We Need Your Help

The Scope Auction is next Friday, February 10th!

Many things must be done in the next week to prepare the hall for Auction night. Lisa Larson will be calling people who signed up in the volunteer notebook. For anyone else interested in helping with this giant fundraiser—and earning valuable fundraising hours—check the schedule below and see where you might be able to assist.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7 9:00—3:15

- Washing china and glassware
- Ironing tablecloths (please bring an iron and ironing board if possible).
- Setting up the tables and chairs in dining area & tables for auction displays
- Large decorations set up throughout the Hall

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8 9—3:15

- Set tables and fold napkins (stealth jet or destroyer?)
- Continue with decorating
- Silent Auction display:
 - Bring all auction items to Camerman Hall
 - Display auction items.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9 9– 3:15

- Set up Finance and Check-in tables
- Set up Bars
- Fine tune item displays & decorations

THURSDAY EVENING 6:00 PM—

- Mandatory training meeting for all volunteers who will be assisting on auction night. We will cover duties, schedule etc. for the various positions.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10

- Doors open at 5:00. Please check with Lisa, your volunteer coordinator, or committee chairs regarding arrival times.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 11 9:00—2:00

- Camerman clean-up

Any time you can give would be greatly appreciated – even if it's just a few hours.
